

What is a Union?

- A union is a business, like any other for-profit company.
- A union is not a charity.
- Instead of selling merchandise, a union makes money from the dues, fines, fees, and assessments that its members are required to pay.
- Unions must have dues-paying members to stay in business.

Get the Facts!